Dear Parents,

The Counseling Department at Robert Frost Middle School is happy to announce they will be periodically hosting therapy dog visits. The purpose of the therapy dog will be to provide nonjudgmental listening and love for students in an academic setting. The dog is vaccinated, trained, and registered with TDI (Therapy Dogs International). It will be accompanied by its owner when visiting Frost.

If you have any questions about the therapy dog visits, please contact Ms. Kathy Hallas (6th Grade Counselor) at 301-279-3965.

If for any reason you do not wish for your child to visit with a therapy dog, please sign and return this form to Ms. Kathy Hallas in the Counseling Office.
