Daily Planners

- Third grade students will be very responsible this year. They will use a planner to record their homework daily and Stonegate folder to bring important papers to and from school.
- Students will write their homework and any important messages in their planner daily. The teacher will sign the planner daily ensuring that the list is complete. Parents should check the planner every night and sign daily to ensure homework is completed.
- The planner also is a communication device between teacher and parent. Planners can be purchased at the school office for $3.25, and should be bought in the first week of school.

Homework

- Third graders can expect to have up to 30 minutes of homework per night, plus 20 minutes of reading and 10 minutes of basic math fact practice (Max total= 1 hour)
- Students will always have Reading, Math and Spelling homework.
- Reading homework is to read a minimum of 20 minutes a night to complete their monthly reading logs. Reading logs are mandatory and due at the end of the month.
- Math homework will be a worksheet and typically review concepts from class. Homework will often be differentiated.
- Spelling homework will be various forms of sorting words. Parents can help support students with completing these sorts. There will be 2 weeks of practicing and then a final test given on the last Friday. All spelling homework grids will need to be turned in as well.
- No homework on Fridays!
- Homework is meant to be turned in ON TIME. Check with your teacher on their late homework policy.
