Burnt Mills Elementary School Strategic Priorities

- Academic Excellence - to have high expectations for all scholars and provide a challenging and engaging instructional program that empowers scholars to reach their full potential.
- Cultural Proficiency and Equity- to create equitable classroom behaviors, structures, and intentional teaching behaviors that affirm and value the cultural experiences, backgrounds, and reality of scholars.
- Social Emotional Wellness - to create a safe, positive and interactive learning environment that cultivates scholars with a strong sense of self. Staff and scholars will work together in an effort to teach scholars how to show empathy for others, make responsible decisions and regulate their emotions and behaviors.
- Family & Community Engagement- to strengthen the home and school connection in order to develop a strong and supportive community where all members feel welcome, respected and know that their ideas are valued in the decision making process.
